the worlds best orations from the earliest period to the present volume 6 Magnum P.I. is one of life's guilty pleasures that we don't necessarily talk about, because we struggle to understand the fascination ourselves. Of all the great TV shows to become enthralled with, why Magnum P.I.? By any objective measure, it's not one of the top shows of all time. You won't see it in the Top 50 of any credible "All Time TV Show" list (unless it's an '80s Only' list).

the worlds best orations from the earliest period to the present volume 6 Socrates. My dear Phaedrus, whence come you, and whither are you going? Phaedrus. I come from Lysias the son of Cephalus, and I am going to take a walk outside the wall, for I have been sitting with him the whole morning; and our common friend Acumenus tells me that it is much more refreshing to walk in the open air than to be shut up in a cloister.

the worlds best orations from the earliest period to the present volume 6 Preface. A thought conceived but not expressed is at best only an unborn child, not only without any influence on the world, but of whose very existence the world may be unconscious; but once brought forth it becomes part of the living working universe, to work there its appointed season, and possibly to leave its mark for good or evil on all successive time.
